"Larry" Delmour, the Sage of City Island, backed by the members of his Navahoe Club, is championing the cause of Tammany District Leader Joseph F. Mulqueen in the contest for the leader-ship in the Twenty-ninth Assembly Dis-

Raising his eyes skyward to-day 'Larry' declared: "No power on earth, nor the whole rank and file of Tammeny Hall, Mayor Low, President Roosevelt, nor the pow ers above the earth, can make me support any man in this leadership figh other than Joe Mulqueen." "But last year you were with Rush hook, line and sinker," said a friend.

"Last year told its own story," answered "Larry." "I thought I knew Rush then, but I didn't. I find that I know Mulqueen better, and it's to my credit that I have laid my fortunes Change in the Situation.

There has come a change in sentiment in the district accompanying the Del-mour flop. Last year Candidate Rush, who is backed by Assistant District-Attorney Maurice Blumenthal, was thought to have the primary battle won. A month ago it looked as if he would certainly win. To-day Mulqueen and Rush constituents are lined up for a royal battle, with the forces tending to elect Mulqueen. The latter, like his opponent, is a lawyer, young and energetic, too. He showed cleverness as campaign manager and attracted the attention of John F. Carroll and other abroad he abdicated the leadership in favor of Mr. Mulqueen. Several veterinary surgeons said it would be impossible to set the injurred leg successfully, so Snyder and Keeper Shannon undertook the cure themselves. This morning the animal was held while Snyder and Shannon tied two pleces of common lathe about the leg. The animal was then carried into a small stall, where it will be permitted to remain until the bone has knit.
